

Document Revisions:

Rev. No.	Date	Description	Prepared	Approved
0	30/11/03	New Issue	Binil Varghese	MG
1	15-10-12	Revision 1	MAV	MK
2	22-05-16	Revision in ISO	MAV	MK

HSE MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1.0	PURPOSE AND SCOPE
2.0	DEFINITIONS AND ABBREVIATIONS
3.0	RESPONSIBILITY
4.0	PROCEDURE
5.0	RECORDS
6.0	DISTRIBUTION AND AVAILABILITY
7.0	ATTACHMENTS

ENVIRONMENT MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

1.0 PURPOSE AND SCOPE:

The purpose of this procedure is to establish an HSE Management Program that assists ABE in successfully implementing its HSE Management System and assesses all its safety, health and environmental objectives.

The scope of this procedure covers all activities, products and services associated with ABE.

2.0 DEFINITIONS AND ABBREVIATIONS:

ABE	:	Albanna Engineering
HSE MS	:	Health, Safety & Environmental Management System
HSEMP	:	Health, Safety and Environmental Management Program
MR	:	Management Representative
PO	:	Process Owner
CEO	:	Chief Executive Officer

3.0 RESPONSIBILITY:

3.1 The CEO is responsible for implementation of HSE MS within the company.

3.2.1 HSE Officer is responsible for identifying significant Health, Safety & Environmental aspects objectives, targets and their management program.

4.0 PROCEDURE

4.1 For all significant aspects having objectives and targets, an Health Safety & Environmental Management Program will be developed. The HSEMP will

4.1.1 Designate responsible individuals at each relevant function and level of the organization against each significant aspect, objective and target.

4.1.2 Establish the specific steps relevant to the objective

4.1.3 Establish the timeframe of executing the HSEMP.

4.1.4 Ensure that resources are available

4.2 Health, Safety & Environmental Management Programs for following significant aspects are attached as an example

- All significant aspects determined based on legal requirement.
- Hazards & Assessments determined based on the activity.
- Materials identified as significant
- Health Improvements.
- Work environment improvements.
- Enhancement of Performance through proper training.
- Energy usage identified as significant
- Solid and liquid waste identified as significant.
- Conservation of Water used for vehicle washing.
- Control of emission during blasting & painting activity.

4.3 The programs will be amended as necessary to ensure that they apply to new developments and new or modified activities, products and services.

4.4 Regular review will ensure that the programs are dynamic and that they continue to reflect objectives and targets.

5.0 RECORDS

5.1 Health, Safety & Environmental Management Program

6.0 DISTRIBUTION AND AVAILABILITY

- CEO
- Department Heads
- Controlled Copy Holders of IMS Manual

7.0 ATTACHMENTS

NIL